VOLUME 2, ISSUE 7 • December, 2007

It's been busy, busy, busy here at Gasser Jewelers, but we still have many beautiful things left for that last minute gift. And, with only a few days left, we offer special hours on Sunday, December 23rd from 11-3 and Monday, December 24th from 9-3 to assist you with your selections. The following are some festive ideas for everyone on your gift list—naughty or nice.

Dazzling diamonds and sapphires by Peter Storm

Looking to impress a certain someone?

Start here! Jewelry is always the way to make a Christmas morning sparkle. We have an extensive selection of fine diamonds and fashionable jewelry that includes watches, pendants, pearls, earrings, and necklaces. Gassers, a Canton mainstay for over 70 years, is the source for all your jewelry needs.

Christmas ornaments make a great gift for the hard to buy for person.

We have beautiful ones from Swarovski crystal, including the highly collectible annual snowflake ornament. Jay Strongwater ornaments are mouth blown in the old European tradition and are hand painted and decorated with Swarovski crystals.

Other gift giving ideas for family and friends this holiday season come from Baccarat, Waterford, Orrefors, Fabergé, Simon Pearce, and Lladró. Crystal candle holders, vases, bowls, wine goblets and porcelain figurines add elegance to any home.

Overwhelmed? Can't find what you're looking for? Are you one gift away from a meltdown?

Gasser "Younique" gift card

If you still can't decide, you can solve all your problems by giving a Gasser gift card. A gift card can be issued for any amount and will allow them to choose just what they want.

As always, all your purchases will be pampered with that special Gasser gift wrap.
