VOLUME 4, ISSUE 6 • OCTOBER 2009

Gasser Fine Jewelers is unveiling a new jewelry line just in time to add a bold new look to your fall wardrobe.

Created ten years ago in Italy and introduced to the U.S. market two years ago, Rebecca Jewelry is quickly becoming a recognizable name.

Beautifully crafted of stainless steel, sterling silver, and 18-karat gold plated bronze, and featuring faceted gemstones, the collection is stylish and affordable. Designed by

Alessandro Testi who was ahead of his time in working with these affordable metals, the jewelry has the quality, look and feel of Italian craftsmanship while offering glamorous yet affordable jewelry to women in all walks of life. The collection is recognized for its big statement looks and is geared to women who wear and recognize big-name labels. Forward in style, but still having a timelessness, it is the type of jewelry that a woman can keep going back to, and, it can be mixed with other pieces in her wardrobe.

A trunk show featuring the Rebecca line will be held in the store on Thursday evening, October 8th, from 5 – 8pm. Refreshments will be served and all are welcome.

October has two birthstones—opals and pink tourmalines.

Opal is often chosen to celebrate those born in October. Opal was long thought to hold magical powers, and, like the month itself, opals show changing colors and flashing fire. Opals are symbolic of love, life, hope, and truth.

Pink tourmaline is often used to celebrate October birthdays as well. Expressing timeless feminine charm, pink tourmaline comes in many hues from bubble gum to rich crimson. Tourmalines are thought to attract friends, protect the wearer against bad decisions, and shield its owner from danger.

Mark your calendars for another Judith Ripka Trunk Show.

Friday, November 6th from 12 – 9pm and Saturday, November 7th from 10am – 3pm, a representative from the company will be here with lots of jewelry from both the gold and the gold and silver line. These events are always much anticipated and well attended. It's a good opportunity to shop for Christmas.
