VOLUME 4, ISSUE 7 • NOVEMBER 2009

Mark your calendars! The trunk show you've all been awaiting is almost here!

A representative from Judith Ripka will be in the store on November 6th and 7th. A winner of the DeBeers' Award for Diamond Design and a member of the Council of Fashion Designers of America, Ripka creates jewelry of understated elegance that can be worn from day into evening with blue jeans or to black tie affairs. A large selection of spectacular pieces from both the 18-karat gold Couture collection and the silver and 18-karat gold collection will be on display Friday from 12 noon until 9 pm and, again, Saturday, from 10 til 3pm. So, come alone, bring a friend or spouse, and see these exquisite pieces, some of which have never been in our store before. Now is the time to shop for Christmas while a large selection is still available.

Congratulations to Susan Makhlouf of Massillon who is the winner of our Luxury Vacation giveaway. The contest was open to customers who purchased engagement rings, wedding bands and/or anniversary bands during the past year. Susan is engaged to marry James Preiss also from Massillon.

Is your birthday on file with us?

Gassers wants to help you celebrate your special day by giving you a gift card to be used in our store any time during the month of your birthday. Stop in or call us and let us know the day and the month that you were born so that we can join in the celebration.

Plans are underway for our annual Holiday Open House and for our fourth annual Gingerbread House contest. Keep watching. We will e-mail you more on this later.
